The SUERF Secretariat, in conjunction with our local partners in Utrecht, has managed to organise the following programme, for partners of attending Colloquium participants on the Thursday 3 and Friday 4 September, 2009. Registration forms should be sent to the SUERF Secretariat, with payment to be made by credit card, with the latest date for registration being 15 August 2009. Participants should return the Registration Form by fax or e-mail to the SUERF Secretariat.

Thursday 3 September 2009 – Utrecht City Walking Tour 10:00–15:00

Llewellyn Bogaers will take the group on a guided tour of Utrecht in English, taking in the city's major sights and telling the group about the history of the City. The tour will leave from the Janskerk and will include a walk around the historic city centre of Utrecht. After a break for coffee and cake in the Domkerk followed by a tour and insights into its history, participants will then walk through other parts of the city to the Catharijneconvent, where a light lunch will be taken. After a visit to the Catharijneconvent's museum collections, the tour will conclude with a final walk to the main shopping area to allow partners free-time for shopping or to visit other sights.

Cost of participation: EUR 30 per head (excluding coffee and lunch)

Friday 4 September 2009 – Daytrip to Het Loo Paleis 09:00–17:00

Participants will be picked up from the NH Center Hotel (next to the Janskerk) and taken by bus to Het Loo Paleis near Apeldoorn. For nearly 300 years, the palace was a residence of the Dutch royal family, and its gardens have been restored to their former regal grandeur. Since being opened to the public in 1984, it has become one of the Netherlands' most popular attractions. The day trip will start with coffee on arrival, followed by a visit to the stables, before walking to the palace itself. Before lunch, there will be a brief film about the history of Het

Loo and its restoration. Lunch will then be served in the ball room. After lunch there will be a guided audio tour of the palace, before the visit concludes with a guided tour of the palace's grounds and gardens, before returning to Utrecht by coach.

Cost of participation: EUR 60 per head (all inclusive)
