

CURRICULUM VITAE
Frank LIERMAN

Born in Knokke, 20.02.1949

Married, 3 children

University degree in Economic Sciences (K.U. Leuven 1970)

1970 - 1972

Assistant in the Working group Financial Economy of the Center of Economic Studies (K.U. Leuven)

1974 - 1979

Member of the Economic Research Department of the Paribas Bank Belgium

1980 - 1984

Head of the Economic Research - Translation - General Documentation Department of the Paribas Bank Belgium

1985 - 1989 (March)

Head of the Study and Marketing Department of the Paribas Bank Belgium

1989 (April) - 1992

Director of the Organisation Department of the Paribas Bank Belgium

1993 - 1996 (September)

Director of the Asset Management Department of the Paribas Bank Belgium

1996 (October) - 1998 (December)

Director of the Euro Project of the Paribas Bank Belgium, which became ARTESIA BANK in March 1997

1999 (from January on) - 2001 (December)

Director of Strategy and Economic Research - Chief Economist of the ARTESIA BANKING CORPORATION

2002 (from January on)

Chief Economist of the Dexia Bank

x
x x

- Head of the Editorial Board of the Revue Bancaire et Financière, issued by the Belgian Financial Forum
- Co-president of the Coordination Committee of the Belgian Financial Forum
- Belgian member of the Council of Management and member of the Editorial Board of SUERF, the European Money and Finance Forum
- Contributions in "Denktank" (De Standaard) and "Portefeuille" (De Tijd)
- A lot of articles on profitability and solvency of the Belgian financial sector, financial topics, macro-economic and monetary topics.